

ANNIE CAST LIST

PLEASE READ! Congratulations and thank you to all the wonderfully talented people who auditioned. You gave us some tough choices. Frankly some of you who were not cast would certainly have been cast if you had offered more flexibility in your role choices. I am disappointed that I won't get to work with you. Also, before you drop out of the show because you don't think your role is big enough or important enough... keep in mind that it takes every single one of you to make this production a success. This is a special show for me. It is my fortieth directing anniversary show, and I want you to be a part of it. It will be a fabulous show and a total blast. Only the shaded roles are double cast. Everyone else will be in every single performance. If you didn't get cast this time, please audition again! Company Meeting will be Monday, March 5 at 7:15. Please make every effort to be there. No scripts will be handed out without a $35 deposit. Thanks so much, Debra, Camille and Candice
